

Please do not permit BPL. This will cause serious interference with amateur radio communications. Amateur radio operators have long and distinguished history responding to disasters by providing emergency communications when police, fire and other critical services could not.